ALFRED LONG. SON OF DAVID & ELIZABETH.

May 18, 1918—75 years ago.

Teenager enlisted: An 18-year-old was handed over by magistrates to military authorities after being charged with being an absentee.

Alfred Long had been approached by a policeman in Pamber Heath and asked his age.

He said he was 18 and worked "up in the firs gravel digging."

Asked if he had anything to show he was exempt from military service, he said "No" and was taken into custody.

The court heard Long had not received his call up papers but the teenager was not prepared to prove he was exempt from the call up and was given to military authorities.

Magistrates imposed no fine because they agreed the matter was not the boy's fault.

Aunt Rosa was my fathers half-sister of whom he was very fond. She lived at 13 The Glen, Pamber Heath all her married life. She then lived alone for a few years before living with Arthur and Jean, who cared for her until they could no longer cope. Aunt Rosa then went into Clifton Court, which is a small residential home for the elderly where she was happy and well cared for. She celebrated her 100th birthday there, surrounded by her family and friends.

Rose misses nap for party

GREAT-grandmother Rose Long celebrated her 100th birthday in style -- surrounded by friends and family.

The centenarian had a day-long celebration at her retirement home at Clifton Court, Richmond Road, Basingstoke.

Rose spent the day with over 40 family and friends who all live in the area.

They included her son, Arthur, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was born in Tadley but moved to Pamber

Heath when she married and has lived there for 70 years.

She moved to Clifton Court in 1996 after having spent two years living with her son.

She had lived on her own for ten years after her husband Arthur died in October 1984.

Rose, who missed out on her afternoon nap to ensure the celebrations continued, said: "It made my day to see so many friends and family. "I thoroughly enjoyed myself."

All in MT wish him a long and happy retirement.
