I am looking to purchase some books on Tadley and I see that TADS have some for sale. Could you tell me who the cheque should be made payable to.

I am researching Mongers born in Tadley during the 1800's

Dear Iris,

I have been given your name by Derek West regarding Tadley Family History as a possible source of information. I have been researching my Tree for the past year and I believe I believe my tree originates from Tadley before 1860. I am looking for some help and I wondered if you could point me in the right direction. I have gained my information so far from either the 1881 census or the Tadley parish records held on microfiche in Winchester.

This what I know

Thomas Monger (parents unknown) Born 1727 in Tadley had two wives

Wife 1 Avis west had two children Martha and Issacs all born in Tadley.

Wife 2 Mary Thomas had four children Daniel, Elizabeth, Sarah and George all born in Tadley.

George Born 1781 Tadley
Married
Hannah Cotttrell in 1808 Tadley

They had 7 Children George, Thomas, Mary, William, Sarah, John, Elizabeth All born in Tadley.

George born 1813 Tadley
Married
Elizabeth West / Weston not sure ? in 1835 in Tadley

They Had 9 Children

Henry, Daniel, Francis, Charles, Noah, George, David, Alice, Sarah all born in Tadley.

Daniel is my Great Great Grandfather which I can confirm through Birth Certificates. Every thing before this is a process of elimination so there may be some errors. Daniel married Esther Saunders in 1860 ( I have the marriage certificate) in Tadley. They then moved to Pamber before Daniels premature death some 10 years later.

I know from another source that Mongers were living in Tadley in 1669 when John was born to George (born 1634 ?) & Mary. I do not whether these are relations.

I have many other records for family members living in Tadley during this period but I thought it worth just concentrating on my direct family.

I would be grateful for any pointers you can give me

Regards,

Mark Monger

Tadley Ain't What It Was

My Aunt, in verse her memories recalled
Of "Tadley, God Help Us" when she was a child.
It prompts me to put my pen to my paper,
And note a few facts which followed much later.

From the late 1940s to our present day,
Tadley folk have looked on with dismay.
The place has changed from village to town,
Many dwellings put up - a few pulled down.
Like the Blacksmith's place, Tom's fish & chip shop,
And Thick's bakery store on Tadley Hill Top.

Miss Huntley's house - still there! - well I never,
But her orchard and daffs no longer give pleasure.
The water still flows if you can call it a brook,
Encased in much concrete - I can't bear to look.
Rowan Farm fields and the Withey beds,
All covered with roads and houses and sheds.

Whatmore's - now Budgens - about to expand,
More houses demolished to give up their land.
Gone the Memorial down by the 'big Arch',
Put up the Green-- so the Legion could march
Away from the traffic that trundles each day,
To far reaching places - no time for delay.

The bus into town - when we all knew who's who,
The Saunders, Wests, Nashes, to name but a few.
Knew the conductor who took all our fares,
Knew when we stopped, who'd come down the stairs
Today the story is not quite the same,
Even the bus company has a new name.

Gone are the days when folk worked up 'The Drome',
With plenty of space for "a body" to roam.
The freedom to walk the grounds at your will
To the pond, the farm, or the lane to Pacey's Hill.
Oh the place is still there - much changed you'll agree,
All fences and gates and called AWE.

Yes things have changed, some good - some bad,
Some like what they've got, some want what they had.
But for true Tadley folk whose roots go deep down,
Tis their village they yearn - not this place called a town.

—Jean Monger, Tadley.
